

Born: Bergen-Belsen, Germany
Resides: Jerusalem, Israel
1995-2005 Associate Professor, Corcoran College of Art and Design
1977-1979 Post-graduate work, American University, Washington, D.C.
1977 BFA George Washington University, Washington, D.C.
1971 Otis Art Institute, Los Angeles, California
1965 California State University, Northridge, California

Mindy Weisel, an internationally renowned artist, author and speaker, was elected into the Smithsonian Archives of American Artists in 2000. Her works are in the permanent collections of the National Museum of American Art, Oxford University and the Israel Museum, among many other public and private collections. Weisel is the author of DAUGHTERS OF ABSENCE: Transforming a Legacy of Loss; and TOUCHING QUIET: Reflections in Solituded. She is also a member of the United States Art in Embassies program. Weisel lived and worked, for over forty years, in Washington, D.C. and now reside in Jerusalem with her husband.